

ONE BROTHER KILLED; ANOTHER BADLY HURT

Dan Waterman Uses Knife With Deadly Effect Upon George and Theodore Helmer.

FIGHT THE OUTCOME OF OLD FUED

Row Started on Huntington Avenue,
Where Brothers are Alleged to Have Made First Attack—Waterman Arrested by Detectives and Held on Charge of Murder.

As the result of a cutting affray at Huntington avenue and Thirty-eighth street about 6:30 o'clock yesterday evening, Theodore Helmer, of 3111 West Avenue, is dead, and his brother, George B. Helmer, is at his home, 3719 Huntington avenue, suffering from an ugly gash on the right side of the abdomen. Dan Waterman, a well known riveter employed at the shipyard, is a prisoner at the police station, charged with murder.

The fight is said to have been the outcome of an old feud between the men. It seems that when Waterman was returning to his home in East End yesterday evening from the shipyard, the Helmer brothers attacked him and he defended himself with a long knife, which it is said, he had been carrying for some time.

Theodore Helmer received three horrible gashes, one through the abdominal wall, another through the liver, and the third in the lower part of the abdomen. George Helmer received but one wound and he walked to the police station to report the affair to the police.

Before going to the station, however, he had his brother moved to his home, where Dr. W. Roane Aylett was called to attend him. After making an examination of the wounds the physician had the wounded man moved to St. James hospital, where he and Dr. J. Kennedy Cross operated upon him.

The patient died this morning shortly before 3 o'clock.

As soon as he made a report of the cutting to the police, George Helmer was sent to his home, where Dr. T. J. Kagey attended him. He will recover.

Following the cutting Waterman made his escape but he was afterwards arrested by Detectives Messick and Pearson. He probably will not be given a preliminary hearing in police court until George Helmer is able to appear against him.

THEATRICAL

Professor L. A. Lee, the hypnotist, who was seen at the old Johnson's Opera House in this city about nine years ago, will open a week's engagement at the Academy of Music Monday night.

Prof. Lee has a rare collection of curios, photographs and letters of Rajahs and Thibetian Lamas and he will display the collection in the windows of Meyers' Bros. Department store tomorrow.

Prof. Lee has done considerable traveling through the far East during the past five years and Monday night he will lecture on the mysteries of the Hindoo adepts and also produce his "Hindoo Leathen" sleep.

"Human Hearts"

W. E. Nankville's "Human Hearts" will be the attraction at the Academy of Music Tuesday night. This show has made annual visits to Newport News for many years and is well known to local theatergoers.

The production this year is said to be better than ever before, entirely new scenery having been secured. The company is said to be one of the best that has presented the play in several years.

Antique.

Says a dealer in antiques: "I had a fat woman in here the other day. Well, sir, she was a caution. She would have the antique all through her house, sir, nothing but the antique for her house decoration. Why, sir, judging by what that fat woman said and bought in this shop, I should judge she was heartbroken, sir, that she couldn't get the shades of her ancestors for her parlor windows."

Postmaster Cabell Here.

Postmaster Cabell, of Richmond, was in the city yesterday and called upon Postmaster Hopkins.

Through Service to Washington Without Change—Norfolk, Old Point and Washington Special.

Vestibule Coaches, Pullman Parlor Cars—Commencing August Fifth, via C. & O.

Leave Norfolk 9:00 a. m., Pine Beach Pier 9:00 a. m., Old Point 9:30 a. m., Newport News 10:00 a. m.

Arrive Washington via Richmond and R. F. & P. 3:10 p. m.

Daily Except Sunday.

Connects at Washington with Congressional Limited for Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York and Boston.

Especially arranged for Exposition Service. Purchase tickets via C. & O.

MANY PEOPLE

Want to sell Real Estate, and some have great bargains. Why don't we buy them?

Well, we can't buy them all; we want our clients to take some of them. Please allow us to show you what we have paying from 8 to 12 per cent. net.

Powell Trust Co.

BANKING & INSURANCE
Rents & Real Estate

2711 WASHINGTON AVE.
NEWPORT NEWS, VA.

Social-Personal

Mrs. Rhodes, of Buchanan, is the guest of Mrs. George Baker, 125 Thirty-second street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Curtis and children, of Denbigh, are the guests of relatives in the city.

Misses Crissie Davis and Frances Langslow have returned from a visit to Miss Davis' sister at Clover, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. George Baker and little son, of Lexington, Va., are the guests of Mrs. George Baker, 125 Thirty-second street.

Miss Grace Bailey, of Wilmington, Del., is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. C. Morrison, on Twenty-ninth street.

Miss Emily Thomas, of Albemarle county, will leave for home today after a visit to her brothers in this city.

Mrs. H. E. Boykin and Miss Ora Bargamin leave today for a visit to relatives and friends in Martinsburg, Va.

Mrs. Ernest C. Cox has returned from White Sulphur Springs, where she spent ten days.

Miss Mabel Hart is visiting friends at Cave Springs, Va.

Mrs. C. B. Wood is ill at her home in East End.

Miss Myrtle Morrison, of Richmond, is spending the week with friends here.

Miss Marjorie Reynolds has returned from a visit to friends in South Boston.

Mr. William Staples, of Quincy, Mass., is visiting his aunt, Mrs. C. Brown Crafford.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Lacy, of Charlottesville, are visiting friends here.

Mrs. Mary C. Reynolds has returned from Sweet Chalybeate Springs, Va., where she spent two weeks.

Misses Maggie and Julia Falconer will leave tonight for a two weeks' visit to friends in Washington, D. C., and Loudoun county.

Miss Lena Peltz is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Levy in Norfolk.

Master Horace Quigley, of Philadelphia, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Read, on Orcutt avenue. Master Quigley's father is Mr. W. H. Quigley of the shipbuilding firm of Quigley, Davis & Dorp, Camden, N. J.

Miss Agnes Epps will leave this morning for Wilmington, N. C., to spend several weeks with relatives.

Miss Pearl McKee, who has been visiting Mrs. W. W. Eames, on Twenty-seventh street for the past week, left last night on the Old Dominion steamer for her home, Lottsport, N. J., accompanied by Mrs. Eames and Miss Nellie Eames, of New Kent county.

Mr. J. H. Thacker, of Dieputana, is the guest of his brother, Mr. J. Mastin Thacker.

Miss Millie Swank, of Washington, D. C., is visiting Miss Maude Kellum in East End.

Mr. George Ried, of Portsmouth, a delegate to the State Firemen's convention, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Kellum in East End.

Reforming.

"Your money or your life!" shouted the footpad.

"I have no money," said the victim, "and my life will be of no use to you."

"I don't know about that," replied the footpad. "I have been thinking for some time of trying a new life."

REEL RACES CLOSE

FIREMEN'S CONVENTION

State Companies Contest Today

for Custody and Cash
Prizes.

BIG STREET PARADE YESTERDAY

Line of March Extended Over a Mile and Thousands of People Gathered on Streets to Witness the Spectacle

—Portsmouth and Hampton the Prize Winners.

Reel contests on West avenue between Twenty-sixth street and Twenty-eighth street at 10 o'clock this morning will bring to a close the celebration of the twenty-first anniversary of the founding of the Virginia State Firemen's Association, which began in this city Wednesday. Running teams from Strasburg, Lexington, East Covington, Covington, Woodstock and Harrisonburg, will participate in the races and some unusually fast and interesting sport is anticipated. There is considerable interest in the reel events and it is expected that a great crowd will witness them.

Each team will make two runs over the course, the first run in the State contest and the second in the world race. The reel presented to the association in Richmond last year, will be used in the races, the teams running with it against time. Each team will pull the reel over a hundred yard course, in a section of hose, making connection with the street plug, break the coupling between the first and second section of the hose, carried on the reel, attach the nozzle and throw water. The team having water going in the least time will be declared the winner. The first prize in each event will be $100 and the second $50.

All of the teams have been doing some hard practicing for the races and the contests probably will be very close. Nearly all of the teams have won first prizes in reel contests at previous conventions and it is understood that the firemen have wagered large amounts on the results of today's events.

Crowning Event, the Parade

The crowning event of the convention was the street parade held yesterday morning. In the line were nearly a thousand uniformed firemen, representing practically every company in the association, six bands, six running teams of fifteen members each, four fire engines, three hose wagons, a squad of police and numerous carriages, bearing Mayor Buxton and the mayors of Portsmouth, Bedford City and Phoebus, the members of the local committees on arrangements, the Keystone Fire Chiefs and other guests, and Chief W. K. Stow's buggy with Chief Stow, the retiring president of the association, and Col. Roller, mayor of Harrisonburg, the new president.

The parade was a splendid affair and everywhere along the long line of march it was witnessed by thousands of people of this city, Hampton, Phoebus, Portsmouth and other cities of the State. The fire fighters and their bands were frequently greeted with bursts of applause and resounding cheers from the spectators.

Prizes Awarded.

The judges who were stationed on Washington avenue had no easy task awarding the prizes for the largest and best looking company and best band in the line. All of the companies showed up in excellent form and it was some time after the parade when the judges could announce the awards.

The awards gave the prize of $100 for the largest and best looking company in line to the Portsmouth Hook and Ladder Company No. 1. This company came over to this city on the naval tug Alice yesterday morning and was headed by the band of the Norfolk navy yard. The firemen wore drab coats and blue trousers and they made an imposing showing.

A purse of $50 for the best band in the parade was awarded to the band of the Twenty-third United States Infantry, stationed at the Jamestown Exposition. This band, headed by the Hampton Company and was given an ovation all along the line of march.

Massie Chief Marshal.

The procession formed on West avenue between Twenty-eighth street and Thirty-fifth street about 10:30 o'clock and was headed by Chief Marshal J. A. Massie. Leading the line was a platoon of police and then followed the carriages bearing the guests of the association.

The Phoebus Company, nearly a hundred strong, and headed by the Fort Monroe band led the firemen in the march and they made a splendid showing. The company refused to enter the competition for the prizes, considering itself a host of the association. Following Phoebus was the Massanutten Company, of Strasburg, headed by Tom Collins, who measures about six feet nine inches in height and who attracted more attention from the spectators than any other fireman in line. The Clifton Forge company brought up the rear of the first division.

Leading the second division was the Reliance Drum Corps, of Alexandria, followed by the Reliance Company, of that city. This company made a creditable showing and the drum corps received great deal of applause. The Shenandoah Company, of Woodstock, followed Alexandria in the division and the Phoenix Company, of Suffolk, followed. This company had a half hundred men in line and attracted no little amount of attention. The Lexington company, with its old negro mascot, brought up the rear of the division.

Portsmouth Hook and Ladder company No. 1, headed by the Norfolk navy band, led the third division and the company undoubtedly made the best showing of any in the parade. Following Portsmouth in the division were the Columbia Company of Alexandria, the Colonial Bench Company, the Bedford City Company and the Danville Company.

Hampton's Good Showing.

The Hampton Company with the Fort Monroe band, led the fourth division and there was no better looking company in the line of march. Above the ordinary statue, the members of the company made an imposing appearance in their full dress uniforms. Harrisonburg Hose Company No. 4 also made a good showing with the division as did the Covington companies. The Charlottesville company brought up the rear of the division.

In the fifth and last division were the three local fire companies, the bands of the North End and East End companies, the apparatus of the entire city department and the Williamsburg Company with its gasoline engine. This division came in for its share of the commendation of the spectators.

Assisting Chief Marshal Massie were Marshals J. Hugh Caffee, J. E. B. Stuart, A. L. Powell, W. E. Rouse and A. A. Moss.

The Line of March.

Starting on West avenue the parade moved over Washington avenue from Twenty-third street to Thirty-eighth street, then to Huntington avenue and along that avenue to Forty-seventh street. There it counter-marched and moved back down the avenue to Twenty-fifth street, out that street to Chestnut avenue, one block on that avenue to Twenty-sixth street, down to Roanoke avenue, thence to Twenty-fifth street and to Jefferson avenue and then to Twenty-eighth street and from there to Huntington avenue and Twenty-fifth street, where the parade disbanded. The marching lasted two hours.

At the Brewery.

President Wagner and other officials of the Old Dominion Brewing & Ice Company, entertained the firemen at the brewery at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Several hundred of the visiting fire fighters, accompanied by numbers of the local firemen, visited the brewery during the afternoon and all had a jolly good time.

Many of the visitors returned home early in the evening. The Portsmouth Hook and Ladder Company No. 1, left on the government tug Alice at 6 o'clock and the Phoenix Company, of Suffolk, left for that city early in the afternoon. Most of the Hampton and Phoebus firemen also returned to their respective towns soon after the parade.

The visitors were tendered a clam bake on the beach between Twenty-third street and Twenty-fourth street from 8 o'clock to 10 o'clock last night. Several hundred firemen and ladies attended the bake, during the evening.

Chief Stow's Banquet.

Fire Chief W. K. Stow tendered a banquet to the Keystone Fire Chiefs the Coferston Hotel at 9:30 o'clock last night. Covers were laid for about forty guests, including the chiefs a number of local business men and visiting fire captains. The affair was a most enjoyable one.

Mayor Samuel R. Buxton presided as toastmaster and after the many good things had been disposed of the mayor called upon the guests for speeches. Most of the gentlemen gathered around the banquet board responded to toasts.

The menu cards were very odd affairs and each guest kept one as souvenir.

LADIES!

This add and 25 cents entitles you to either a shampoo, manicure, massage or fancy hair dress at

NICHOLAS' HAIR DRESS-
ING PARLOR
203, 27th street, Silsby Bldg.

The Boston Store

2908 Washington Ave. Newport News, Virginia

Reg to announce that they now have on exhibition in their windows, some of the Early Fall Models in Ladies Tailoring for the coming season.

The above models as everything else, are made in their own modern workshop, by skilled man and woman tailors.

Please your order for your suit or jacket now, as a little later, we will be busy and will not be able to give you prompt delivery.

NO FIT, NO PAY

A separate pattern is drafted of all customers, and kept after using for future use.

Hundreds of seasons latest Dress Novelties to select your Fall Frock or jacket.

COME TODAY

THE POPULAR DRY GOODS HOUSE

The Boston Store

2908 Washington Ave. Newport News, Virginia

Kidney Disease, First Stage Promptly Relieved By Pe-ru-na.

JAS. M. POWELL

Catarrah of the Bladder.

Mr. James M. Powell, 431 Kensington street, Kansas City, Mo., writes:

"About four years ago I suffered with a severe catarrah of the bladder which caused continued irritation and pain. I was miserable, and could not stand up or walk for any length of time without extreme weariness and pain."

"I began taking Peruna and it greatly relieved me, and in eleven weeks I was completely cured, and felt like a new man."

Kidneys and Liver Affected.

Mrs. Carrie King, 730 North Cascade, Colorado Springs, Colo., writes:

"Peruna has been my favorite and only household remedy for nearly five years. I have suffered for years with biliousness, and kidney and liver trouble. If I caught a little cold, the pains were increased, and headache and headache were of frequent occurrence."

"However, Peruna cured me—twelve bottles made me a new and healthy woman. For three years I have enjoyed the best of health. I keep Peruna constantly in my home, if my husband or I catch cold or feel indisposed, a few doses of Peruna never fail to restore us."

Mr. M. T. Gaffney, Corpus Christi, Texas, writes:

"I can certify to the truthfulness of Peruna as a catarrah cure, and am recommending it to every one. I am practically well of the catarrah in my nose, throat and head."

"My druggist told me one day of the praise his customers gave to Peruna, and advised me to try it, offering to return my money if it did not help me. I purchased a few bottles. I kept getting better. The medicine did its work, and in four months I was a well man."

Mr. William F. Lothamer, former president of the Boss Harbers' Union, a noted politician and at one time chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, writes from 1006 South 4th Ave., Minneapolis, Minn.:

"For years I suffered with severe disease of the kidneys. I would have pains all over my body, and at times have such dizziness in my head that I could not see nor work."

"Nights I would often be awake with pain so I could get no rest. I spent hundreds of dollars on doctors and drugs, and had ceased to have faith in either."

"My druggist told me one day of the praise his customers gave to Peruna, and advised me to try it, offering to return my money if it did not help me. I purchased a few bottles. I kept getting better. The medicine did its work, and in four months I was a well man."

To the People of Nortolk, Portsmouth, Newport News, Hampton, Old Point and Vicinity:

The Jamestown Exposition has been brought to a condition of excellence which entitles it to your hearty support. In order to encourage and secure this, the management offers a ticket good during the life of the Exposition at the price of $5.00. These tickets will be placed on sale at convenient points in your respective communities. If the Jamestown Exposition is not successful by reason of attendance, it will be due in large part to its failure to receive hearty and loyal local support.

J. M. BARR,
Director General.

August 26th, 1907.

NOTICE

Material the best
Mixed the best
Always the best
It eats the best
Demands the best
It sells the best

Eat Jennings' Butter Bread

It is the best, and save your tags. They will get the best prizes.

HEALTH FOOD BAKERY

Washington Ave. and Thirty-first St

Daily Press, 10 Cents a Week